RE: Dr. Param Nair

---

Dear Colleagues:

I have just heard that Param Nair has been awarded the Bastable-Potts Asthma Research Fund Award from the Asthma Society of Canada for 2016. This award is to recognize an outstanding Canadian Clinician Scientist working in the area of asthma.

I'd like you to join with me in congratulating Param on this outstanding achievement which recognizes his excellence as a Clinician Scientist working to understand and better manage severe asthma.

Very best regards.

Yours sincerely,

Paul M. O'Byrne, MB, FRCP(C), FRSC
